Dear Clerk Miller:

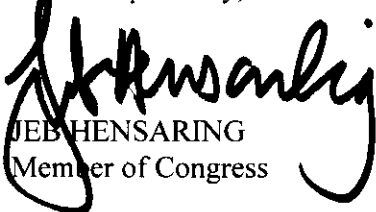

In August of this year, Aurora Acquisition Holdings, Inc. (Aurora), which is owned by affiliates of Texas Pacific Group, contacted me regarding rights to shares of stock that were evidently acquired prior to my service in Congress when I served on the Board of Directors for IMCO Recycling, Inc. A copy of that correspondence is attached. IMCO later merged with Commonwealth Industries in 2004 to form Aleris International, Inc (Aleris), which in turn merged with Aurora in 2006..

I had no ownership record of these particular shares, did not possess them and I had no knowledge of their existence until I was contacted in August.

Per instruction from Aurora, I submitted an Affidavit of Lost, Missing or Destroyed Certificates and subsequently received a check from Aurora in the $15,001 - $50,000 range (range acquired from Calendar Year 2009 Financial Disclosure Statement Form) in exchange for the shares.

Pursuant to instructions that I received from staff at the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, it my understanding that notification of this matter to your office by this letter will put me in compliance with all relevant financial disclosure rules of the House. Please confirm such or otherwise notify me what steps I need to take to ensure full compliance. I appreciate your attention to this matter.

Yours respectfully,

JEB HENSARLING
Member of Congress

Dear Shareholder:

On December 19, 2006, Aleris International, Inc ("Aleris") merged into Texas Pacific Group ("Texas Pacific"). According to the shareholder records, you still hold certificates representing shares of Aleris common. As a result of the merger, you are entitled to receive $52.50 in exchange for each of your Aleris common shares. BNY Mellon Shareowner Services, as the exchange agent for the merger (the "Exchange Agent"), has previously notified you to send in your shares of Aleris common for exchange, and you have not responded.

UPRR Securities, LLC ("UPRR") has been retained to locate shareholders who have not yet exchanged their shares and to assist them in claiming their property. You may receive your property through this voluntary program, by completing this Letter of Transmittal and returning it along with your Aleris common certificate(s) to UPRR in the enclosed envelope. A processing fee of 15% of the value of your shares will be charged and will be deducted from your proceeds.

If you do not respond to this mailing, the property due you may be remitted to the appropriate state as required under the applicable unclaimed property laws.

If you have lost your certificates, you may still receive your property by completing and returning this form. UPRR will purchase a surety bond, on your behalf, at a cost of 2% of the value of the lost securities. The surety bond premium will be deducted from your proceeds.

You must enter your Tax ID#, date of birth and sign (1) and sign below (2).AUTHORIZATION

I hereby surrender the certificates enclosed (or indicated as lost) for exchange. I acknowledge and represent that I am the registered owner of the shares with good title to the shares and full power and authority to authorize this transaction. I irrevocably appoint UPRR as my agent with respect to this transaction. I agree that a processing fee of 15% is to be paid to UPRR. I authorize UPRR to deduct from the proceeds the processing fees due and the premium for any necessary indemnity bond. I hereby attest that I am not currently employed by a registered broker dealer.
